

ASHLEY SERVICES GROUP

TRAINING | RECRUITMENT | LABOUR HIRE

Remuneration Committee Charter

Ashley Services Group Limited
ACN 094 747 510

Remuneration Committee Charter

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This Charter governs the composition, membership, roles and responsibilities of the remuneration committee (Committee) of Ashley Services Group Limited ACN 094 747 510 (the Company).
- 1.2 The operation of the Committee is also governed, where applicable, by the constitution of the Company (Constitution).

2. Objectives

- 2.1 The purpose of the Committee is to provide advice, recommendations, and assistance to the board of directors of the Company (Board) in fulfilling its corporate governance and oversight responsibilities by:
- (a) putting in place remuneration policies which are designed to attract and retain senior managers and directors with the expertise to enhance the performance and growth of the Company;
 - (b) putting in place remuneration policies that clearly distinguish the structure of non-executive directors' remuneration from that of executive directors and senior management; and
 - (c) ensuring that the level and composition of remuneration packages are fair, reasonable, and adequate and, in the case of executive directors and senior managers, display a clear relationship between the performance of the individual and the performance of the Company.
- 2.2 The Committee should ensure that the Board is provided with sufficient information to ensure informed decision making with respect to the remuneration of executive directors and senior management.
- 2.3 Ultimate responsibility for the Company's remuneration policy rests with the full Board, notwithstanding the establishment of the Committee.

3. Composition

3.1 Members

To the extent reasonably practicable given the size and composition of the board from time to time, the Committee will have a minimum of three members, with a majority of members being non-executive, ideally independent, directors. The members of the Committee will be appointed and removed by the Board.

3.2 Expertise

To the extent reasonably practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, the Committee will comprise of members with expertise in respect of:

- (a) the principles of corporate governance, including knowledge of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) Corporate Governance Council's Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations);
- (b) the Company's businesses and organisation structure;

- (c) the functions of the Board and the various roles and responsibilities of directors and other key executive positions;
- (d) Company management, at a senior management level;
- (e) the disclosure requirements under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the ASX Listing Rules in respect to executive and director remuneration; and
- (f) the complexities involved in negotiating and determining executive remuneration packages.

3.3 Chair and Secretary

- (a) To the extent reasonably practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, the Committee will be chaired by a non-executive director, ideally an independent director (Chair).
- (b) The Company secretary will act as secretary of the Committee (Secretary) unless determined otherwise by the Board.

3.4 Liaison

The principal liaison between senior executives (including senior and key officers of the company) (Senior Executives) and the Committee will be the Secretary.

4. Meetings

4.1 Frequency

- (a) To the extent reasonably practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, the Committee will meet as frequently as required but must, at a minimum, meet twice per year.
- (b) The Secretary must call a meeting of the Committee if requested to do so by any member of the Committee or any member of the Board.

4.2 Agenda and notice

The Secretary will be responsible, in conjunction with the Chair, for drawing up the agenda (supported by any necessary explanatory documentation) and circulating it to Committee members prior to each meeting. The Secretary must notify members of the Committee of the date, time and location of Committee meetings as far in advance as possible.

4.3 Quorum

To the extent reasonably practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, a quorum for Committee meetings will be at least two members, save that one of the members of the quorum ideally will be a non-executive director, ideally an independent director.

4.4 Minutes

The Secretary is responsible for taking minutes of each meeting and distributing them to Committee members as soon as practicable after the close of the meeting.

4.5 Attendance

The Committee may invite any person to attend part or all of any meeting of the Committee as it considers appropriate. Voting at Committee meetings is restricted to Committee members. Any member of the Board may attend a meeting on request.

5. Objectivity

- 5.1 The Committee has the right to seek internal and external advice when it considers such advice necessary in order to fulfil its responsibilities.
- 5.2 Senior Executives must supply the Committee with information in a form, timeframe and of a quality that will enable the Committee to effectively discharge its duties.
- 5.3 The Committee must ensure that it obtains sufficient information to enable it to make informed decisions with respect to the advice and recommendations it provides to the Board.
- 5.4 A member of the Committee is not entitled to be present at a Committee meeting, nor give advice or recommendations to the Board, regarding:
 - (a) the level or composition of his or her remuneration; and
 - (b) the evaluation of his or her performance as a director of the Company.
- 5.5 The Committee must be alive to the potential conflict of interest where an executive director is involved in setting the remuneration for other executives that may indirectly affect their own remuneration (for example, through setting a benchmark or because of relativities).
- 5.6 The Committee may seek input from individuals on remuneration policies, but no individual should be directly involved in deciding their own remuneration.

6. Responsibilities of the Committee

6.1 Executive remuneration policy

- (a) The Committee is responsible for providing the Board with advice and recommendations regarding the ongoing development of an executive director and Senior Executive remuneration policy that:
 - (i) is designed to attract, maintain, and motivate directors and Senior Executives with the aim of enhancing the performance and long-term growth of the Company; and
 - (ii) clearly sets out the relationship between the individual's performance and remuneration.
- (b) The Committee must review the remuneration policy and other relevant policies on an ongoing basis and recommend any necessary changes to the Board.

6.2 Executive remuneration packages

- (a) The Committee is responsible for reviewing and providing recommendations to the Board with respect to the remuneration packages of Senior Executives and executive directors.
- (b) The Committee must ensure that the remuneration packages of Senior Executives and executive directors:
 - (i) Display a balance between fixed and incentive pay which is tailored to the Company's short-term and long-term performance objectives appropriate to the Company's circumstances and goals;

- (ii) provide for a link between rewards and the performance of the Company and the individual; and
- (iii) are consistent with the Company's remuneration policy and any other relevant Company policies.
- (c) The fixed component of each executive remuneration package should be reasonable and fair, taking into account:
 - (i) the core performance requirements and expectations of the individual;
 - (ii) the Company's legal and industrial obligations and labour market conditions; and
 - (iii) the scale of the business.
- (d) The performance-based component of each executive remuneration package must be clearly linked to specified performance targets.
- (e) The Committee must ensure that, where applicable, any payments of equity-based remuneration are made in accordance with the Company's Constitution and any thresholds approved by the Company's shareholders. Committee members must be aware at all times of the limitations of equity-based remuneration. The terms of such schemes should clearly prohibit entering into transactions or arrangements which limit the economic risk of participating in unvested entitlements under these schemes. The exercise of any entitlements under these schemes should be timed to coincide with any trading windows under the Company's Securities Dealing Policy.
- (f) The Committee is also responsible for advising and providing recommendations to the Board with respect to executive superannuation arrangements.

6.3 Incentive schemes

- (a) The Committee is responsible for reviewing and providing recommendations to the Board with respect to:
 - (i) the Company's policies with respect to incentive schemes; and
 - (ii) the incentive schemes of Senior Executives and executive directors.
- (b) The Committee will assist the Board in the development of appropriate benchmarks for use in designing incentive schemes. Incentive schemes should be designed around appropriate performance benchmarks that measure relative performance and provide rewards for materially improved company performance.

6.4 Non-executive directors' remuneration

- (a) Subject to compliance with clause 5.4, the Committee is responsible for providing advice to the Board with respect to non-executive directors' remuneration.
- (b) The remuneration packages of non-executive directors should generally be fee-based and the Committee must ensure that:
 - (i) there is a clear distinction between the structure of non-executive directors' and executive directors' remuneration; and
 - (ii) non-executive directors do not:

- (A) participate in remuneration schemes designed for executive directors; or
- (B) receive options, bonus payments or retirement benefits other than statutory superannuation, without the approval of the Company's shareholders.

6.5 Recruitment, retention and termination policies

The Committee must review and make recommendations to the Board on the Company's remuneration, recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures for Senior Executives.

6.6 Termination payments

- (a) The Committee is responsible for providing advice and recommendations to the Board on the Company's termination and redundancy policies and the payments made to outgoing directors and Senior Executives.
- (b) The Committee should ensure that termination payments:
 - (i) are fair to the individual and the Company;
 - (ii) do not reward failure or misconduct; and
 - (iii) comply with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).
- (c) Applicable termination payments must be agreed in advance and must contain clearly defined provisions regarding the consequences of early termination. The termination payments of the Company's Chief Executive Officer must always be agreed in advance. Agreements should clearly articulate performance expectations. Further, in providing advice and recommendations to the Board, the Committee should consider the consequences of an appointment not being successful, and the costs and other impacts of early termination.

7. Access to adequate internal or external resources

- 7.1 The Committee has the authority to seek any information it requires from any employee of the Company and all employees must comply with such requests. This includes the right to conduct interviews with employees.
- 7.2 The Committee may seek advice from individuals on remuneration policies and practices, but no individual should be directly involved in deciding his/her own remuneration.
- 7.3 The Committee may take such independent legal, financial, remuneration or other advice as it considers necessary, including engaging a remuneration consultant. Any engagement of a remuneration consultant must be approved by the Board or the Committee.
- 7.4 The Committee should understand the Company's structure and operations and key developments relevant to the Committee and may receive periodic presentations from subject matter experts to assist in achieving such an understanding.

8. Reporting

8.1 Reporting to the Board

- (a) To the extent reasonably practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, the Committee will report to the Board, at the first Board meeting subsequent to each Committee meeting, regarding the proceedings of each Committee meeting, the outcomes of the Committee's reviews and recommendations and any other relevant issues. Such reports must include detailed disclosure of executive remuneration policies which are subject to an advisory vote by shareholders.

- (b) In complying with the 'Two-Strikes Rule', the Committee must provide guidance to the Board on remuneration strategy, particularly where there has been a 'first strike' against the Company's remuneration report upon being put to a meeting of shareholders.

8.2 Annual Report

- (a) The Committee must provide the Board with advice and recommendations regarding the appropriate material and disclosures to be included in the corporate governance section of the Company's annual report which relates to the Company's remuneration policies and procedures, information concerning the directors and the performance evaluation of the Board and Senior Executives.
- (b) The following material (or a clear cross-reference to the location of the material) should be included in the corporate governance statement in the Company's annual report:
 - (i) the number of times the Committee met throughout the period;
 - (ii) the names of the members of the Committee and their attendance at meetings of the Committee;
 - (iii) the existence and terms of any schemes for retirement benefits, other than superannuation, for non-executive directors; and
 - (iv) an explanation for the departures from the Recommendations.

9. Committee's performance evaluation

- 9.1 The Committee will review its performance from time to time and whenever there are major changes to the management of the Company.
- 9.2 The performance evaluation will have regard to the extent to which the Company has met its responsibilities in terms of this Charter.

10. Review of the Charter

The Board will review this Charter from time to time to ensure that it is operating efficiently and to determine whether any changes are required to be made. This Charter may be amended by resolution of the Board.

11. Public availability of materials

This Charter or a summary of its main provisions shall be made publicly available on the Company's website in a clearly marked corporate governance section.

Adopted by the Ashley Services Group Limited Board on 28 August 2023.